1 partially deposed or if there's fights over time limits?
2 MR. ELLIS: There's an issue over Mills. He was 3 deposed for over six hours and the rules say seven, so
4 there's an issue on the timing on Mills. Hughes wasn't 5 taken, although we were already there, and so was 6 Mr. Hughes to be taken, and Mike said, no, I'm going home, 7 you know, I'm done. So we could stay another day and 8 finish these, and he decided that he didn't want to stay 9 the weekend and do the one on Saturday. That's his 10 choice.

11 But now I have got the expense of flying back again,
12 which Judge Hogan, as I read his order, said if we go back
13 to do them, it is at the Defendant's cost, Mike's cost, I
14 don't mind that. I had to pay for him to do it the first 15 time. But now the tide is turned.

16 THE COURT: So, Mike?

17 MR. ROBERTS: Happy to do it.

18 THE COURT: Mike, can you and Bill and John work out
19 who, where and why and all of that stuff?

20 MR. ROBERTS: It doesn't sound like we'll be able to 21 from some of the stuff I just heard, but the list of 22 deponents we require is there, Your Honor.

23 MR. MEAGHER: But let me point out a few other 24 problems, Judge. Stefanie Farabow and William Dempsey are 25 attorneys. And consistent with the Court's ruling, absent
